I seek to help the people of Rochester understand all of their auto insurance, home insurance, and umbrella coverage options. As a small business owner myself, I also love working with local businesses on getting them the commercial insurance they need. My mission as your local Farmers® agent is to protect you, your family, and your future income against anything that can threaten them.At The Nicole Curcio Insurance Agency, we pride ourselves on understanding your unique lifestyle and how all of the pieces fit together. We want to craft a customized plan that is right for you and always take the many factors of your life into account. We focus on building genuine relationships with our clients and never look at anyone as just a policy. Our goal is your education and making sure you fully understand all of your choices when it comes to insurance.Before working in insurance, I worked in real estate for several years, which has given me a more holistic understanding of how to help my clients navigate the home buying process. We always take a consultative approach to explain all of your options and simplify the process. Please don't hesitate to stop by our office at 888 Long Pond Road at 888 Long Pond Rd, Rochester, NY 14626 or call us at (585) 225-2100.
